MONTANA PUBLIC BROADCASTING OUTLETS TO PROVIDE EXTENSIVE ELECTION COVERAGE

MISSOULA —

Montana's three public broadcasting outlets -- Montana PBS, Montana Public Radio (MTPR) and Yellowstone Public Radio -- will present live coverage of the Montana election on Tuesday, Nov. 7.

John Twiggs will anchor the television coverage, and Edward O'Brien and Ken Siebert will anchor on MTPR and YPR respectively.

The coverage will include live reports from Democratic and Republican gatherings in Great Falls and Billings, with special coverage of local results in Helena, Bozeman, Billings, Kalispell, Great Falls and Missoula.

Analyst Gary Stein will join Twiggs to discuss the evening's events. UM professors Dennis Swibold and Christopher Muste will do likewise during MTPR and Montana PBS coverage. Field reporters also will provide live interviews and reactions from campaign headquarters in Great Falls and Billings.

MTPR and YPR also will carry nationwide election results from National Public Radio.
